 NEWS ALERT

August 9, 2021

Headline: NFL Players and Moms Share Experience With Parents and Athletes At the HBCU Classic for Columbus

Subheadline: Professional Football Players Mothers Association host Next Level Up “Begin With the End in Mind” Saturday, August 28, 2021

On Saturday, August 28, 2021, The Professional Football Players Mothers Association (PFPPMA) will host two signature events as part of the HBCU Classic for Columbus. The events will be held at the Recreational and Physical Activity Center (RPAC) 337 Annie & John Glenn Avenue on the campus of The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio.

First at 9:00 am, NFL Moms, and guests will get Charg’d Up with an exuberating cardio workout led by former NFL Player, fitness expert and creator of Charg’d Up, Philipé Philly Weeden.

At 11:00 am, following the morning workout, “NEXT LEVEL UP, Begin With the End in Mind”, where all high school and college students attending the Next Level Up session will receive free admission to the game.

This signature PFPPMA program will feature virtual guest appearances from NFL Hall Of Famer, Jerome Bettis, current NFL players, New Orleans Saints Safety Malcolm Jenkins, and Cleveland Browns Corner, Denzel Ward. Live on-site panel, moderated by Obie Stillwell, will include former NFL Players, and mothers of Current and Former NFL Players, including, Jay Richardson (former Oakland Raiders), Josh Cribbs, (former Cleveland Browns), Philipé Philly Weeden, (former Baltimore Ravens), Gladys Bettis, Gwendolyn V. Jenkins, PFPPMA President, Midwest Coordinators, Nicole Ward, and Jacquie Jordan, PFPPMA PR Coordinator and Kentucky State University Alum. Coach Mickey Jackson (former Marshall University and The Ohio State University), and Sports Psychologist, Dr. Candice Williams will also take part of the panel. The purpose of the forum is to provide an opportunity for the panelists to share their stories to inspire and educate aspiring athletes and their parents in their journey to the Next Level in their careers.

The Professional Football Players Mothers Association (PFPPMA) was founded in 1997. PFPPMA is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization that serves as a support network for mothers of active and retired professional football players, with a mission to impact and strengthen communities around the nation through charitable service and initiatives.
